About 5 o'clock last evening two men called at Mecraseman's store, 167 Wooster street and told the father that if he went with them he might find his child.

Eager to regain possession of his lost one, the father accompanied the men to South street and wandered around the piers and danking saloons. The men coaxed him down to the Battery, and they then disappeared. Mecraseman stayed down in that locality until 4 o'clock this morning.

About 10 o'clock last night three men called at the house. Two went in and talked to the mother, while the other stood watch on the outside.

The men asked the mother the amount she would give for the return of her child. She answered she would give them $1 to pay expenses they would get the baby, which was in Greenpoint.

Mrs. Mecraseman told them to wait and she would see her husband, and she started out for the police. She went to Police Headquarters, but was referred to the Mulberry street station. From there she was sent to the Prince street station, and the officers there, in turn, sent her to Mercer street station. ere, in turn, sent her to Mercer street sta-

RAMSAY'S ARREST

HE WILL BE ARRAIGNED BEFORE JUDGE ROUGET TO-MORROW.

He Will Be Charged With Giving a Consideration for Fraudulent Registration-He Claims That He is the Victim of a Conspiracy-Keefe, the Compinional Swears That His Story is True.

Typical Jersey politics are breaking out uite freely.

State Committeeman John A. Ramsay, who s conducting the Republican campaign from the headquarters in Montgomery street, Jersey City, and John H. Beckham, one of his lieutenants, are charged with having con-tracted with a man for a false registration. Both men are out on bail and both deny the charge. Charles Keefe, a 'longshereman, who lives Charles Keefe, a 'longshereman, who lives with his wife and two children in a tenement house at 74 Morris street, and is registere house at 74 Morris street, and is registered at 62, the first election precinct of the "Horseshoe," or Second Assembly District, arpeared before the Board of Registry at the Third Precinct of the First District yesterday morning and offered the name of John Loughlin, 101 York street.

Then suddenly be exclaimed: "Do you want me to register under another man's name? I demand that you arrest this man, who brought me here."

who brought me here."

He pointed his fluger at John H. Beckham, who was beside him.

Yesterday afternoon Beckham was arrested on a warrant issued by Justice Weed, and bailed in $1,000 for examination to-morrow afternoon.

bailed in $1,000 for examination to-morrow afternoon.

Last evening Justice Rouget was found in his office awaiting bail for a girl prisoner, and on Keefe's affidavit that Gen Ramsey had conspired with Beckham to have him falsely register, a warrant was issued and Gen. Ramsay got bail in $300 to appear to-morrow morning, Justice Rouget having a case on for to-day.

Gen. Ramsey said to an Evening World reporter to-day:

It is all a conspiracy. I do not care to name the prominent Democrat who put up Laughlin was unable to want to the place of registry.

"I gave his name and others to Mr. Beckham, and told him to attend to them. Yesterday afternoon I told him to get a carriage at Duffy's livery and take Mr. Laughlin to the precinct to register. I don't know Keefe, and never saw him."

Mr. Laughlin was found propped up in bed at his home. He said:

morning that I couldn't walk to the place of registry and might not be able to go on Elec-registry and might not be able to go on Election Day, A carriage came for me at 3 o'clock in the afternoon and I went and registered."

Mr. Petter, Gen. Ramsay and Beckham knew that Mr. Langhlin was ill.

Keefe paraded with the Republicans Wednesday night.

"After the parade," says Keefe, "John Sullivan told me he wanted to see me at Gen. Ramsey's office, and I went there yesterday morning. I was never there before. I did not see him.

"I says, 'I'll do it,' and he says, 'Gen. Ramsey will make it pay you.""
"Beckham was for goingito fegister right off, but I wouldn't till we see Ramsay. So we went to Gen. Ramsey's room.

"Beckham told him I would do it, and Gen. Ramsay says: 'That will be all right.
You just give that name and say he's a native. Then come back here. "So we went down to the precinct at 37 Gregory street, and after I gave the name I asked them to arrest Beckham."

Gen. Ramsey said he understood that Keefe was a Democrat and registered under his own name in several precincts, and that Chief of Police Murphy had his name on a list to be watched, reefe denied this, and said he was what he called a Liberal, voting for men he liked on call tickets.

Chief Murphy said he had not had Keefe's name till late last night, when John Sullivan, of Ramsay's staff, told him that he had heard that Keefe was registered in two places, but had had his name stricken from the roll in one precinct.

The reporter said to Gen. Ramsay: "In view The reporter said to Gen. Ramsay: "In view of all the circumstances, it looks as if either you or Beckham were in a hole, doesn't it? Only you two and Petter knew of Laughlin's inability. How could Keefe, a stranger, living distant from Laughlin, know the circumstances unless Beckham told him?"

Gen. Ramsay replied that he was not prevent to avere the case. pared to argue the case.

NO QUARTER FOR CROOKED VOTERS.

NEW YORK, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 26, 1888.

The Police Are Muking a Hot Crusad Against Colonizers and Repeaters.

The alleged colonization scheme for neutralizing the Democratic majority has run against a most formidable snag in the shape against a most formidable snag in the shape of the police authorities and District-Attorney's office, and is to-day engaging their closest attention.

A crushed has been inaugurated against colonization and illegal registration and will be pushed with the utmost vigor during these last two days of registration.

There was unusual activity at the Elizabeth street station this morning. Detectives and officers in citizens' dress started out from the station-house at an early hour this morning in search of frauds, and are all under the personal direction of Capt. McCullagh. The police suspect a number of men in this precinct, as in others, and in case they try to register they will be arrested.

Supt. Murray has taken measures to thwart any colonization. "We have secured warrants for the arrest of men for registering illegally, and in case they can be caught will be arrested," he said. "They may visit the places of registration to-day and in that case they will be detained, for we have every such place in the city carefully watched."

"How about the colonization of Harlem with negroes?" asked the reporter.

"We have found that there are many imported colored men there who will try to register, but they will not be allowed to do so unless they have a right."

Assistant District-Attorney Fitzgerald,

unless they have a right."

Assistant District-Attorney Fitzgerald Assistant District-Attorney Fitzgerald, when questioned about the alleged attempt to secure Republican votes by colonization, said: 'We know of such an attempt having been made in certain districts, and we know some of the parties belonging to the little co'onics who will be nabbed without ceremony in case they register. We will not allow any scheme to defeat the Democratic party in New York State or City if we can help it,"

HOCHSTAEDTER AGAIN IN TROUBLE. The Lawyer Who was Accused in the Link

Case, Arrested for Embezzlement. Detective Sergt. Lawler arraigned in the Essex Market Court to-day Oscar J. Hochstaedter, a lawyer having an office at 206

Broadway.

Mr. Hochstaedter was arrested on a despatch received from the authorities of Steuben County, where he is wanted for grand larceny. He is said to have em-grand larceny. He is said to have embezzled part of an estate of which he had charge, and Justice Duffy remanded Hochstaedter to await the arrival of the Sheriff of Steuben County.

Hochstaedter is the lawyer who was accused in the Yorkville Court on Tuesday with having taken $250 from David H. Link for getting him on the police force.

Link was then in custody on a charge of perjury, and now awaits trial. The lawyer did not deny having received the money, but said it was for professional services. He signed a written agreement to return the money though.

Bedell gets paler and paler every day. His face looks baggard, and black spots have formed around his eyes. During the examination he shielded his face as much as possible from the spectators, with his hand.

His brother Charles, who sat beside him during the cross-questioning, also looks careworn and deeply depressed.

In the latter part of his examination Bedell told what he did with the money he obtained.

MR. BLAINE WAS PATIGUED.

His Plans for the Future Days of the Campaign Not Settled.

The fatigue attendant upon the exertion of speaking at the crowded Garden last night made Mr. Blaine a late riser this morning. Capt, Cunningham, who was one of the ontdoor speechmakers, informed an Evening Wonld reporter that the Maine statesman had expressed himself as thoroughly satisfied with the night's work, and spoke most en-couragingly for the future.

Mr. Blaine will remain at the Fifth Avenue Hotel for a few days longer, but his plans in the mean time have not as yet been settled.

COWPERIHWAIT'S STORE ROBBED.

The Cash-Drawer Broken Open and Two Employees Arrested.

George Bergman and Charles Wilson, employees in the stove department of Cowperhwait's big furnishing store near Chatham Square, were before Justice Reilly at the Tombs this morning on a charge of robbery preferred by the firm.

It was discovered yesterday morning that he cash drawer in the office had been broken open and $25.30 in loose change stolen. Wil-open and $25.30 in loose change stolen. Wilson and Bergman were suspected, because they had been at work in the store alone after hours the night before. They were watched, and during the day Manager Slattery caught Bergman trying to pawn a stolen clock at a shop in Catherine street.

Bergman said Wilson had given him the clock, but denied robbing the cash drawer. He was handed over to the police. Wilson, meanwhile, suspected that he was being "watched, disappeared, and was captured by Manager Slattery last evening at Rivington and Essex streets, near his home. He was also taken to the Oak street police station.

Justice Reilly held both men for trial a General Sessions. General Sessions.

TO GO BEFORE THE GRAND JURY.

Judge Barrett Refuses to Quash Quartarare's Writ of Certiorari.

Assistant District-Attorney Bedford, before Judge Barrett in Supreme Court Chambers, this morning moved to have the writ of certiorari in the case of Vincenzo Questararo, the young Italian accused of complicity in the murder of Antonio Flaccomio in front of Cooper Union on the night of Oct. 14, dismissed upon the ground that the case was before the Grand Jury.

Jury.

Lawyers Stilwell & Lawler, Quartararo's counsel, opposed the motion and Judge Barrett refused to grant it.

He allowed an adjournment of the hearing until to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock upon ex-Judge Bedford's assurance that the Grand Jury would act on the case to-day. If the jury indict him Quartarro's lawyers will move for bail and an immediate trial.

BROT ONE OF HIS ASSAILANTS. New Driver and Conductor Assaulted by

Lakeview Toughs. [SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] CHICAGO, Oct. 26.—The feeling against the new street-car men is still very bitter. On the North Side about 19.30 o'clock this mornthe North Side, about 12.30 o'clock this morning, as Clark street grin-car 413 was going morth between Garfield and Webster avenues, a gang of Lakeview toughs got on the car. # HORSE-CARS CAPTURED

This Morning's Campaign by Our Interviewing Corps.

The Passengers in Eighteen Cars Quickly Polled.

Another Strong Showing for Cleveland, Hill and Grant-

To invade and canvass the votes of passengers n board of eighteen separate and distinct streetcars on the various city routes and during the buti-cat hours of travel this morning is the latest remarkable achievement of our able Interviewing Corps.

They went out thirty strong, and came back within the hour and a half allotted to their thes, covered with the apolls of victory and with glory. Elevated railroad trains, ferry-boats, the docks along the river fronts and the business exchange lowntown have one after another yielded to the overwhelming onslaughts of the Corps, and nat-overwhelming onslaughts of the Corps, and hat-urally enough the surface railroads came next in order as offering an inviting and promising field for operations.

The attack, which was planned with care and executed with signal strategic ability under the direction of the experienced Capitals of the pha-lanx, was crowned with success.

The Third avenue cars were boarded in quick succession by as many members of the staff. Then a Dry-Dock ligger, two Bieccker street cars and three Avenue B blue cars came in for a draft upon the resources of the phalanx.

Next, the Eighth and Seventh Avenue lines, over on the other side of Broadway, were supplied with representatives of the corps, and after disposing of

POLLING THE HORSE CAR.

A few more the remnant of the philanx started up Park Row for Chatham Square, under the command of the captain and the first leutenant.

At that point the remaining members of the corps were quickly put into commission on the Second avenue uptown route and a couple of cross-town lines, while a trip of three blocks more down diver street disposed of the last two privates on least two gravates on the capt. Oliver street disposed of the last two privates on board two crowded helt line cars.

In all ten horse-car lines were included in the attack of the phalanx, and within a quarter of an hour after starting from The Evenino Wonlo ofnice the members of the corps were scattered in every direction over the town, busily at work gathering the straws which indicate the direction in which the wind of public opinion is blowing.

BOARDING THE CARS. As soon as a member of the corps boarded the car he displayed the badge of his authority and made no delay in getting to work. The public lave come to regard the young men of the famous phalanx as old acquaintances, and now their appearance in a crowded car was received with looks of admiration more than curiosity. The interviewers had no difficulty in making a great slaughter of victims, outsining a free con-great staughter of victims, obtaining a free fession from hearly every one they approa-and bringing back pocketful of "straws" were truly representative of the drift of poli-opinion among the masses. SUMMARY OF THE POLL. The political preferences of the passengers, drivers and conductors in the cars is, in tabular form,
